ONE HUNDRED FORTY-SECOND DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, June 28, 2010

The House meets at 7:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Lisa Yebuah, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"O Lord:

"Throughout the ages, You have spoken through ordinary people to proclaim good news to a hurting world. We know You are a God who chooses to work through broken vessels to speak words of blessings and to share signs of peace. You see fit to use vulnerable bodies to do great things in Your name. You even call imperfect people to engage in tasks beyond human capacity.

"O God, this evening, we are not afraid to ask You then, what is it that You will do through us? Will it be that by Your power and grace, we, too, would be heralds of good news, or agents of Your peace? Will You allow us to accomplish tasks we believe to be impossible? Will You take our imperfect work and make it into something beautiful? Whatever it is You choose to do through us, do not let our humanness, or our brokenness, or our vulnerabilities prohibit Your creative hand at work among us. Let our work be aligned with Your work in the world and remind us to give thanks when we are indeed co-laborers with You. Guide us, Lord, and help us to be faithful. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of June 24 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.
